THE NAVY'S WARTIME MISSION Should the United States fail in its peacetime efforts, the Navy must shift from a peacetime to a wartime posture. In its wartime posture, the Navy has two areas of responsibility. It must be able to function in a hostile environment, and it must be able to exercise sea control and power projection.

Military Requirements For Chief Petty Officer - Navy Tribe

The Navy, being a unique service, is a society within itself. Navy ships are literally floating cities, and each ship is an individual society within the naval society as a whole. Naval ships have their own form of government (the chain of command) and a system of laws that sets their operating limits. The petty officer, as a leader, fits into this "chain of
