The Childhood of Jesus Summary & Study Guide

If J.M. Coetzee's new novel is, as its title suggests, about the Biblical Jesus, it is so only at several removes, and frequently parodic ones at that. "The Childhood of Jesus" seems in some ways a return to the dystopian impulses behind the Nobel laureate's 1980 classic, "Waiting for the Barbarians." In the earliest drafts of that novel, white South ...
